Salisbury Scribblings.

L. R. Terrett is slowly improving.

T. M. Rice talks of moving to Kansas City.

W. H. Bradley is at Excelsior Springs.

'Squire Logan remains about the same.

Corn sells here on the street at 25c a bushel.

F. H. Wilhite and wife spent last Saturday in Kansas City.

Geo. Dameron has fitted up a feed store on west second street.

Mrs. T. T. Reno and children are visiting in Sullivan county.

Miss Mamie Mathews is in St. Louis buying her fall stock of millinery.

Some of our people took in the old settlers' picnic at Keytesville Wednesday.

L. T. Embree and J. B. Dameron are buying hickory-nuts at 30cts a bushel.

There was a small crowd at Oser's sale Saturday and but little property was sold.

Elder J. M. Smith will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

The apple crop is short, but buyers are getting some fine specimens from our farmers. Old Chariton never entirely fails.

Miss Hattie McCurry and Mr. F. Smiley will be married at the C. P. church this (Wednesday) eve. We congratulate.

The family of W. O. Brooks left for St. Louis Tuesday where they will reside in the future. W. O. will follow in a few days.

F. H. Wilhite sold the L. R. Terrett farm to A. J. Walk of Milo, Iowa, for $6,250. Mr. Walk may not move here for sometime, and if not, will rent the farm to T. L. Kunz.

Mrs. W. W. Rogers swore out a warrant for Shelby Ray, a colored boy, Tuesday, charging him with burglary. He was arrested and the charge will be investigated.

Dr. Smith, state superintendent of the Anti-saloon league, and Dr. Pen-gree, district superintendent of the same order, lectured at the M. E. church Tuesday night to a small audience. Dr. Smith, the principal talker, made the usual temperance speech.

Triplett Times.

T. W. Sanders and wife went to St. Louis Sunday night, expecting to be gone four or five days.

Dr. T. J. Halsey of Ashley, Pike county, has located at Triplett and will practice his profession.

Mrs. J. Thurmond has moved her millinery store into the brick building two blocks north of the bank.

Dith Knappenberger of Brunswick was in our city Tuesday after the insurance business.

Several people of this vicinity attended the picnic at Keytesville Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Williams of Linley, Mo., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dave Johnson, is reported to be very sick.

Mrs. C. E. Lynn of Bramerville, Pa., has been visiting her father, Stewart Henderson, of near town for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Emma Burnette of Gunnison, Colorado, arrived in our city Tuesday for a visit to her parents, J. E. M. Triplett and wife.

Mrs. James P. Hampton returned home Tuesday, having been absent on a visit to her parents and other relatives at Winchester, Clark county, Ky., for the past six weeks.

B. A. Gilvin of Triplett returned home Wednesday. He had been superintending the building of A. J. Miller's spacious farm residence, five miles northeast of here.

Parties who registered at the Harper house this week were: J. K. McLennan, Elmira, Ill.; A. R. Griffith, DeWitt; John Wilkinson, Chas. Cravens, John Rudder, Chas. Peck, Walker Rodgers and Willie Wright, all of Salisbury; Dr. Halsey and wife, Ashley, Mo.; John Kester, Chicago, Ill.

Hickory Grove Hints.

Health of the community is improving.

Patsy Riley was visiting Newhall relatives Sunday.

Miss Sallie Sowers is recovering from an attack of sickness.

Mrs. Lizzie Williams has been quite sick, but is convalescing.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the Brookfield carnival.

Preaching will begin at Bethel Tuesday night after the second Sunday in this month.

There was a quilting at the home of Mrs. John Williams Thursday. Those present enjoyed the occasion immensely.

Miss Alice Barnes of near Brunswick visited in our midst the latter part of last week.

After a stay of several months in Kansas City Miss Ollie Paulsen returned to her home Saturday.

W. M. Wiseman was in Brunswick Sunday on "business." Weed is getting quite energetic.

Wm. Welch and Miss Matilene Barnes were the guests of Miss Helen Harr of near Brunswick Sunday.

J. H. Jennings is in Iowa attending the bedside of his father, who is seriously ill. He's 85 years old.

After a visit of several weeks to relatives in Iowa, Mrs. I. M. Wiseman and son, Weed, returned to their home Thursday.

We were in error last week when we stated that the protracted meeting would begin at the Indian Grove Presbyterian church Sunday last. We hasten to rectify the mistake. Rev. Gage of Fulton did conduct services Sunday morning at said church. The sermon was eloquent and the hearers were greatly edified. Dr. Gage is indeed an able divine.

Summer Squibs.

Mrs. Kenyon returned to Bedford Saturday.

Mrs. Clement of Brunswick is visiting her sister, Mrs. Guilford.

Mrs. Snyder left Monday to visit friends in Hale.

Wm. F. Compton of Lewisville, Ill., is visiting friends here this week.

Many of our people attended the Brookfield fair and carnival last week.

"Uncle" Geo. Sanders returned home Tuesday from a three weeks' trip to Colorado.

"Uncle" M. L. Murphy was up and around again Monday after an illness of two weeks.

Murphy Waugh, Deck Howard and several more of our boys are enjoying the sights in Kansas City this week.

Hon. W. W. Rucker spent a short time between trains skating hands with friends here Monday.

The new and spacious residence of Butler Smart, in the east part of town, will be completed in a few days.

Miss Amanda Zimmerman of Brunswick stopped off here Saturday on her way to visit friends in Brookfield.

with a series of meetings at the Christian church.

Moses Hardy left Monday for Kansas City to pursue his dental studies. We shall miss him, but, perhaps, there is nothing just at present to tie him to Sumner.

The law-suit of H. T. Simon, Gregory & Co. of St. Louis against Simcox & Stains, which was tried at Chillicothe last Friday, was decided in favor of Simcox & Stains after pending in the courts seven years.

Author Sanders of Bogard is now to be found again in the emporium of Mathieson & Strode. We learn that Mr. Strode is about to take a well-earned vacation. These are enterprising business men and are building up a nice trade with our farming community.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will give a substantial supper Thursday evening, Oct. 13th. "Ye scribe" is honored with a corcial invitation to be present and he looks forward to the event with an impatience only known to a hungry reporter.
